

2003 ENDEAVOUR CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Dry Creek Valley

NEW RELEASE!

In 2000, wine writer Jeff Morgan called our Endeavour Cabernet Sauvignon, “the next great cult Cabernet” from Sonoma County. When blind tasted against its more expensive counterparts from the Napa Valley, our Endeavour Cabernet finished first in the tasting.

Over the past several vintages, Endeavour has become one of our most sought after wines. It is produced in extremely limited quantities from our estate vineyard in the Dry Creek Valley. Endeavour continues to set the benchmark for our Cabernet program.

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

- ◆ Single-vineyard, pure expression of Cabernet Sauvignon from the Dry Creek Valley.
- ◆ Additional aging time - 30 months in French oak and 12 months in the bottle.
- ◆ Endeavour vineyard is sustainably farmed and is an estate property.
- ◆ Endeavour is sold in only select accounts and presents a unique item for exclusive wine lists.
