

by Jerry Shriver

October 20, 2006

2004 HERITAGE ZINFANDEL

Sonoma County

A Classic California Zinfandel

“For more than 30 years, this producer (drycreekvineyard.com) has turned out some of California’s most reliable Zinfandels, and this bottling upholds that tradition. It’s packed with juicy blackberry flavors and spice notes, and the alcohol comes in at a very manageable 13.5%. This isn’t a trophy wine, just a well-made classic California Zin.

Try it with sourdough bread and hard cheese or with barbecued ribs.”

Dry Creek
V I N E Y A R D