2005 DRY CHENIN BLANC

Clarksburg

Refreshing whites are just right
for summertime

“My favorite wine this week, the 2005 Dry Creek Vineyard Clarksburg Dry Chenin Blanc, is a reminder of what we might soon be missing. This racy, tropical wine has flavors of pineapple and passion fruit; it’s a little pungent on the medium-length finish. The 2004 vintage was chosen by The Chronicle as one of the best Bargain Wines of last year, and this is one is also a contender.”
