

Continental

The inflight magazine for Continental Airlines

February 2007

the wine shop

This month, Continental Sommelier Martin Korson recommends his favorite wine.

2005 Fumé Blanc

Sonoma County

“Trivia question: What is the difference between fumé blanc and sauvignon blanc? Answer: the spelling. Both are made from the same grape, called sauvignon blanc. This wine has brilliant acidity that is well balanced with key lime and ripe pippin apple flavors.”

