

Dry Creek
VINEYARD

CONNOISSEURS' GUIDE to California Wine™

GOOD VALUE

2005 FUMÉ BLANC

Sonoma County

“An entirely reliable version of the grape, this one delivers fresh, grassy, slightly lean fruit smells and is medium-full-bodied, on the round side in early feel and firms up nicely as it finishes. Flavors of grass and kiwi fruit keep it on the varietal track, and its tilt to firm acidity directs it to broiled fish and shellfish dishes.”

March 2007