

San Francisco Chronicle

JUNE 20, 2008

2006 FUMÉ BLANC

Sonoma County

★ ★ TWO STARS

“This perennial hit never sees a lick of wood, even if its name harks back to the days when Sauvignon Blanc required oak and a synonym to sell. Clean, precise aromas sold it this time, including saline, fresh oregano, apple and creamy grapefruit. A rounded texture balances out punchy lean citrus flavors, and it has a lively core.”

Dry Creek
V I N E Y A R D