TOP ZINFANDEL PRODUCER

By Gregory Dal Piaz — January 2012

“Here’s a name that you don’t see on every Zinfandel top 10 list. Dry Creek Vineyard. They make many wines that are affordable, delicious and solid everyday drinking wines, but they also make some very impressive single vineyard Zinfandels.”

“Heck, they’ve been doing it for quite awhile now, we should recognize the consistency with which they’ve been pumping out great Zins for 40 years! These are among the more affordable of the wines on this list. Bringing great Zin to a broad audience should be part of the equation in determining my favorites, if only just a little bit.”
