WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The Russian River Valley is internationally recognized as one of the finest Chardonnay growing regions in the world. The traditionally long, cool growing season allows our Chardonnay to hang on the vine until it achieves its true potential and ripeness. Layers of pear, apricot, apple and tropical fruit characters are evident in both the aroma and flavors. Rich and opulent, but also very delicate and light on its feet, the wine incorporates the warm, toasty French oak in a seamless and well-integrated package.
