

2002 BULLOCK HOUSE MERLOT

Heinen's Table Two

February 2006

by Zoe Komaransky

We indeed found it impossible not to be enchanted by the Bullock House Merlot. Less than 500 cases per year are made from the grapes surrounding the historic home, which serves as Dry Creek Vineyard's picturesque guesthouse. Smooth and supple with cherry overtones — the iron content of that particular vineyard's soil adds this character — the Bullock House Merlot defines what a romantic wine should be.
