

Top 10 Wineries

Citysearch Editors Pick Their U.S. Favorites

After sampling the best of the Napa Valley wineries, explore the country's other top vintagers from the Texas Hill Country to Eastern Long Island.

Chateau Elan Winery & Resort: Braselton, Ga.
This elegant chateau produces excellent wines, but it's also a 4-star resort.

Beaux Freres: Newburg, Ore.
The demand for this vineyard's pinot noir is through the roof.

Meier's Wine Cellars: Cincinnati, Ohio
Meier's wine is made with grapes from a small island in Lake Erie.

Beringer Vineyard: St. Helena, Calif.
A touch of the Rhine amid California's majestic redwoods.

Dry Creek Vineyard: Healdsburg, CA

“The well-regarded fumé blanc is perfect for a picnic in the garden.”

Robert Mondavi Winery: Rutherford, Calif.
No one should miss a trip to this classic mission-style winery.

Niebaum-Coppola Winery: Rutherford, Calif.
Enjoy private alcoves and "Godfather" memorabilia at the don of Napa Valley wineries.

Fall Creek Vineyards: Tow, Texas
Ranges of limestone and granite surround these Texas Hill Country vineyards.

Horton Vineyards: Gordonsville, Va.
This picturesque road-trip destination is located in a quaint castle-like building.

Eastern Long Island Vineyards: Long Island, N.Y.
Long Island's wines have been getting more and more respect each year.

Dry Creek Vineyard