

Wine Spectator

By Jim Laube

August 2016

91
POINTS

2013 ENDEAVOUR CABERNET SAUVIGNON Dry Creek Valley

“Reminiscent of a fine Bordeaux, this is well-structured and built to cellar, with a tight core of dusty blackberry, wild berry, cedary oak, gravel and road tar flavors, supported by chewy, fine-grained tannins. Drink now through 2030. 995 cases made.”

