WINE ENTHUSIAST
October 2020

90 Points – This is a greatly approachable and well-made wine, blended with small amounts of Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Malbec and Petit Verdot. Smoky, perfumed oak leads to a juicy center of black currant, black cherry, cedar and dried herb, finishing on supple tannins.

WINE & SPIRITS
December 2019

91 Points – Best Buy – Plump and easy, this wine smells like strawberries and tastes like darker fruit—black currants along with herbal scents of cigar tobacco. It feels supple and substantial, healthy and round, with foresty notes of pine sap. For rosemary-grilled lamb chops.

January 2019

92 Points – Aromas and flavors of blueberry cobbler and mocha nuts with a vibrant, dry-yet-fruity medium-to-full body and a complex, medium-long finish revealing suggestions of flan with clementine, roasted nuts, and cedar with light oak flavor. A vivacious and stimulating cabernet with great acidity and style.
