

SAUVIGNON BLANC

2019 SAUVIGNON BLANC – Dry Creek Valley

WINE ENTHUSIAST
October 2020

91 Points – A perennial bright star, this white opens on tones of lemon rind, stone and lychee. Textured and lively in acidity, it has complexity and approachability in equal measure.

WINE SPECTATOR
February 2020

90 Points – Embraces grassy, herbal notes of dried lemon verbena and lemongrass that mingle well with succulent lemon, peach and dried apricot flavors on a medium-bodied, juicy frame, showing terrific harmony on the finish.

Double Gold

WINE ENTHUSIAST
November 2019

91 Points – This delicious take on the grape is ripe yet bright. Exotic flavors of peach, pineapple and lemon zest lead to a creamy midpalate, with just a hint of oak shining through.

CALIFORNIA GRAPEVINE
June 2019

91 Points – Very Highly Recommended – Light yellow; attractive, forward, fragrant, floral, grassy, grapefruit, passion fruit, and melon aroma with tropical notes; medium body; crisp, bright, zesty, citrus and tropical fruit flavors; lingering aftertaste. Shows assertive, grassy varietal character and very appealing in that style.
