

FUMÉ BLANC Sonoma County

2021 VINTAGE

WINE ENTHUSIAST
OCTOBER 2022

90 Points - Editors' Choice - This wine consistently overdelivers on its price point, providing a lively, bright and light style of stainless-steel fermented delight. Celebrating its 50th vintage in 2021, it offers a refreshing core of melon, wet stone and lemon-lime zest that honors its Loire Valley inspiration. -Virginie Boone

2020 VINTAGE

WINE SPECTATOR
FEBRUARY 2022

92 Points - Top 10 Wine Values of 2021 - Fresh and effusive, with lemongrass, lemon verbena and fresh ginger notes to complement the core of juicy lemon-lime, green apple and ruby grapefruit flavors. Juicy and mouthwatering on the vibrant finish. -MaryAnn Worobiec

THE TASTING PANEL
JULY / AUGUST 2021

92 Points - A charming modern wine with a fresh nose and a floral, juicy palate. Layered, ripe, and tangy, with a lovely balance of interesting elements.

WINE ENTHUSIAST
OCTOBER 2021

90 Points - Stainless-steel fermented without the use of oak for aging, this perennially impressive white is inviting in floral aromas of honeysuckle and apple blossom. Crisp layers of stone fruit keep it fresh and fruity. -Virginie Boone

WINE REVIEW
ONLINE
AUGUST 2021

90 Points - There are many moments these days when it seems there are fewer and fewer things one can depend on but wine lovers can count on Dry Creek Sauvignon Blanc to remain delicious year after year. -Marguerite Thomas