- Dry Creek Vineyard's continuous production of a dry, aromatic style for more than 50 years has made it a benchmark for California Chenin Blanc.
- Inspired by France's Loire Valley, where Founder David Stare fell in love with the variety and began dreaming of starting a winery of his own.
- Single-vineyard bottling sourced from Wilson Ranch, multigenerational grower partners for more than 40 years.
- Exceptional quality in the bottle for less than $20.

— RAY ISLE, OCTOBER 2024

“Clarksburg has become a go-to region for Chenin Blanc, which is (finally) seeing a bit of a renaissance in California wine. About time, but Dry Creek knew its value all along — they’ve been making this jasmine-scented, melony, hard-to-put-down dry Chenin since 1972.”
