

“This insanely sippable wine is ready for spring oyster gatherings (or any day) its own. Low in alcohol, it’s light and yet not flabby, with and peach. And it’s a perfect Dry Creek Vineyard wine made yet another at a screaming price. It’s a conservative choice that shows nice maturity. It’s a fresh, creamy wine among the best in the dry, as the name suggests.
