- Dry Creek Vineyard's continuous production of a dry, aromatic style for more than 50 years has made it a benchmark for California Chenin Blanc.
- Inspired by France's Loire Valley, where Founder David Stare fell in love with the variety and began dreaming of starting his own winery.
- Single-vineyard bottling sourced from Wilson Ranch, multigenerational grower partners for more than 40 years.
- Exceptional quality in the bottle for less than $20.

90 POINTS | 2024 VINTAGE

“Floral details of chamomile and orange blossoms give way to a juicy core of Honeycrisp apple, orange sherbet and marmalade on a fresh frame, with accents of wildflower honey and beeswax on the finish.”

“Clarksburg has become a go-to region for Chenin Blanc, which is (finally) seeing a bit of a renaissance in California wine. About time, but Dry Creek knew its value all along — they've been making this jasmine-scented, melony, hard-to-put-down dry Chenin since 1972.”

— RAY ISLE, OCTOBER 2024

5 SOMMS SAY SO

Including ...

“Acidity, freshness and vibrancy are what this wine is all about.”

— JACKSON PUDLO
SINGLE THREAD FARMS

“This wine is coming in at 12% alcohol. ...

This is guilt-free hedonism in this bottle.”

— JAME BLACKMON
NAPA VALLEY SOMMELIER

“A really, really crisp, refreshing aromatic wine. ... It's definitely going to please the crowd.”
